

Future of Life Long Learning and TVET

Dr. Olga Oleynikova

Relevance of Life Long Learning

- Overall developmental context
 - Industry 4.0
 - Digitalisation
 - gig-economy
 - knowledge-based economy
 - sustainable/green development
 - enhanced migration and mobility, etc.
- Growing uncertainty (“black swans”)

How to achieve – prerequisites for success

- Internationalisation
- Competences for the new world
- Diversification of learning paths
- Allowing access to jobs and continuing education and training

The LLL skills to foster in TVET

- Take charge of your own development
- Identify the occupation of interest
- Focus on career growth
- Foster multiple fields of expertise

Tools for LLL

- Opportunities for progression and transfer due to coherent and consistent NQFs
- Microcredentials as LLL tool
- Opportunities for recognition of qualifications
- Further enhancement of internationalisation

Internationalisation

- An objective process of sustainable interaction of national systems of education and their mutual influence
 - based on common goals and principles
 - addresses the needs of international community
 - reflects trends of the new century

Aims of Internationalisation

- To enhance quality of TVET by ensuring participation of students and teachers in the international exchange of knowledge and technologies
- To ensure comparability of diplomas and qualifications
- To enhance academic and labour mobility
- To raise revenues by attracting fees for training foreign students

Aims of Internationalisation

- To develop common strategies and principles for TVET development
- To gear TVET policies to:
 - ensure that TVET curricula meet the needs of the economy and society;
 - enhance quality of graduates' training;
 - strengthen international cooperation and partnerships in TVET;
 - ensure coordination of TVET schools activities;
 - encourage competition of TVET systems.

International cooperation and partnerships

- International organisations:
 - World Bank
 - OECD
 - UNESCO-UNEVOC
 - CEDEFOP
 - ETF
- TVET professional associations:
 - IVETA
 - EfVET
- Erasmus+ (EU)

Thank you!