7th Model ASEM

in conjunction with the 11th ASEM Summit (ASEM11)
“20 Years of ASEM: Partnership for the Future through Connectivity”

Background on ASEM

The Asia-Europe Meeting (ASEM) is an informal process of dialogue and cooperation bringing together the 28 European Union member states, 2 other European countries, and the European Union with 21 Asian countries and the ASEAN Secretariat.¹ The ASEM dialogue addresses political, economic and cultural issues, with the objective of strengthening the relationship between our two regions, in a spirit of mutual respect and equal partnership.

Background on Model ASEM

Model ASEM is a 3-day youth conference and political simulation of the Asia-Europe Meeting (ASEM) Summit. It is a platform for students to exchange perspectives on Asia-Europe collaborations, promote the ASEM process and build long-term relations between youth of the two continents. Through role-play, research, case-studies and practical trainings students will enhance their diplomacy, negotiation, consensus-building and public-speaking skills.

The 7th Model ASEM will take place in Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia between 6 and 10 July 2016, in conjunction with the 11th ASEM Summit (ASEM11). The agenda and programme are closely based on the actual proceedings of the ASEM11 which will gather all ASEM leaders, including 51 Heads of States, the President of the European Commission, the President of the European Council and the Secretary-General of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) Secretariat.

Objectives

To provide a sustainable platform for students to engage with the ASEM process and create direct interactions with ASEM leaders and ASEM civil society

To facilitate capacity-building activities for students to fine-tune their skills in the fields of diplomacy, negotiation, consensus-building and public speaking

To enhance the understanding among students of the ASEM process and Asia-Europe relations in general

To develop a consensus-based Chair's Statement by the participating students, which will be presented to the ASEM leaders at the Opening Ceremony of the ASEM11 ¹ASEM consists of 53 partners: Australia, Austria, Bangladesh, Belgium, Brunei Darussalam, Bulgaria, Cambodia, China, Croatia, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, India, Indonesia, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Kazakhstan, Korea, the Laos PDR, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malaysia, Malta, Mongolia, Myanmar, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Pakistan, the Philippines, Poland, Portugal, Romania, the Russian Federation, Singapore, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Thailand, the United Kingdom, Viet Nam, the European Union and the ASEAN Secretariat.

Participants

a) About 150 student participants (international and local students based in Ulaanbaatar, students from ASEM countries) and resource persons

b) Officials of ASEM Delegations and Ministries, Representatives from ASEM Diplomatic Missions

c) Representatives from educational institutions, International Organisations and Non-Governmental Organisations

Through an ASEM-wide Open Call and Selection Process, the organisers will ensure a geographical and gender balance as well as a diversity of student participants from various fields of studies.

Programme

The 7th Model ASEM will include 3 main components:

Phase 1: Online pre-event phase (ca. 3 weeks)

The selected participants will join online pre-conference research and training modules which include individual tasks, exercises, case studies and team work

Phase 2: 3-day conference in Ulaanbaatar

The programme consists of plenary sessions, working groups and practical trainings with a focus on the 3 ASEM pillars: economic, political and socio-cultural

The participants will develop a consensus-based Chair's Statement on the theme 20 Years of ASEM: Partnership for the Future through Connectivity, which is to be presented as to the ASEM leaders at the Opening Ceremony of the ASEM11

To gain in-depth knowledge about the operations and functions of Embassies and Consulates, the participating students will also visit Diplomatic Missions of ASEM countries located in Ulaanbaatar

Phase 3: 11th ASEM Summit

4 student participants are to present to the Head of States the Chair's Statement of the 7th Model ASEM of the ASEM11

In agreement with the relevant Ministry of Foreign Affairs, a number of participating students will have the chance to meet their Heads of States on the sidelines of the ASEM11
